It seems there is a different speed and nature of change

Speed of change

75 YEARS 13 YEARS 4 YEARS 3.5 YEARS It took about 75 years for the Reaching telephone to connect 50 3 YEARS million people. Today a simple iPhone app like Draw Something can reach that 50 Million milestone in a matter of days. 2.5 YEARS In the past 10 years the rate of adoption of new technologies has accelerated users 50 DAYS at a dizzying speed. Can we keep up with it all? by G. Kofi Annan / @gkofiannan / gkofiannan.com

Uncertainty & volatility

We are living in a VUCA world

Volatility	The nature, speed, volume, magnitude, and dynamics of change.
Uncertainty	The lack of predictability of issues and events.
Complexity	The confounding of issues and the chaos that surrounds any organization.
Ambiguity	The haziness of reality and the mixed meanings of conditions.

"Jobs are being created faster than skills are being developed. It has created the need for a new kind of leader who can adapt on the fly – one that has learning agility. On thing is clear, the exact job a person holds today, will likely be dramatically different within a few years."

MD, Search firm Korn Ferry

Why do we need agility

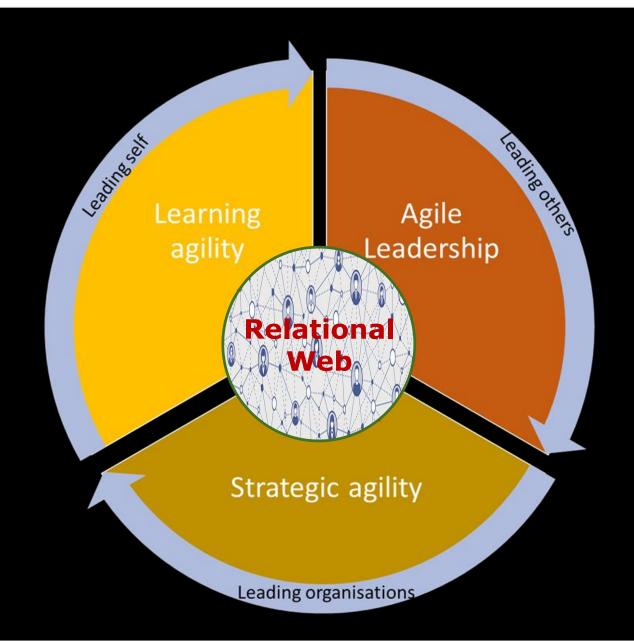

Agility is a distinct quality that allows individuals, teams & organizations to respond rapidly to changes in the internal and external environment, without losing momentum and whilst holding true to your purpose, values and vision.

A 2009 study at MIT found out that agile firm increase revenues 37% faster than non agile firms.

3 perspectives of agility
